Annual Dinner

Guest of Honor and Keynote Speaker

Federal Councillor Ignazio Cassis
Head of the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs FDFA

Welcome remarks by Edward T. McMullen, Jr.,
U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein

Ignazio Cassis (FDP), elected by the United Federal Assembly on September 20, 2017, took up his post as head of the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (FDFA) on November 1, 2017.

For the two years prior to his election to the Federal Council, Mr. Cassis, a doctor of medicine, was president of the parliamentary group of the FDP - The Liberals, of which he was a member since his election to the National Council in 2007. From 2015, he chaired the National Council's Social Security and Health Committee. His political career began in 2004 with his election to the legislative authority of the Ticino municipality of Collina d'Oro.

Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Cassis held the office of Vice-President of the Swiss Medical Association (FMH). Prior to that, from 1996 he was cantonal physician for the Canton of Ticino. Between 1988 and 1996 he worked as a doctor.

Ignazio Cassis graduated in 1998, specializing in internal medicine and also in prevention and public health. Prior to that, he had obtained a master's degree in public health (MPH) from the University of Geneva in 1996. He graduated from the University of Zurich in 1988 with a degree in human medicine.
