

Executive Breakfast Fireside with

Luca Maestri

10 years CFO of Apple

Board Member, Nestlé

Proposed for election to the Board of UBS

Friday, April 17, 2026, 7:30-10:00

Luca Maestri was Chief Financial Officer of Apple from 2014 to 2025, reporting directly to Apple CEO Tim Cook. During this period, revenue more than doubled and services revenue grew more than fivefold.

Since January 2025, he has been leading Corporate Services at Apple, the world's most innovative and admired company, and continues to report to Tim Cook.

Luca Maestri started his career with General Motors in 1988 and spent 20 years in finance and operating roles in the Americas, Asia Pacific, and Europe. He joined Nokia Solutions and Networks as CFO in 2008 and became Chief Financial Officer of Xerox Holdings Corp. in 2011, until he joined Apple in March 2013.

In this conversation led by Dr. Björn Johansson, Luca Maestri will explore how one of the world's most influential companies thinks about global leadership, innovation, and resilience - and what this means for Europe and Switzerland in a rapidly changing global environment. Luca will talk about technology, digital infrastructure, and security in a world of rising geopolitical and economic uncertainty.

Luca Maestri, an Italian and US Citizen, graduated from LUISS University in Rome with a bachelor's degree in Economics and earned a Master's Degree in Science of Management from Boston University, USA, in 1991. Since 2022, he has been a member of the Board of Directors of Nestlé SA.
