Panel Meeting

Hidden Swiss Champions

MedTech

Thursday, November 23, 2023

MedTech is a demanding, highly regulated yet attractive market where not only large global players like Johnson & Johnson, Stryker or Straumann are providing strong shareholder returns. In Switzerland, several mid-sized MedTech companies have evolved, reaching strong positions in smartly selected market niches, and successfully went public at the Swiss Stock Exchange.

At this panel meeting, we can learn from the CEOs of Coltene, Medacta and Medartis how they navigate their companies through the geopolitical challenges and its fallout, increasing regulatory pressure, labor force shortage, and how they strive for sustainability and further growth despite the anticipated economic slowdown.

Panelists:

- » Martin Schaufelberger, CEO COLTENE Holding AG
- » Francesco Siccardi, CEO Medacta International SA
- » Christoph Brönnimann, CEO Medartis AG

Moderator: Beat Lüthi, CEO CTC Analytics AG, Chairman INFICON Holding

The event will be held in English.
