by Guest of Honor

Denis Machuel

CEO

The Adecco Group

September 17, 2024, 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

What matters in the world of work?

A highly experienced global leader, Denis Machuel has dedicated his entire career to people-focused businesses. Adecco Group's purpose of 'Making the Future Work for Everyone' resonates deeply with him. Since July 2022, Denis has been CEO of the Adecco Group, the world's leading talent solutions and advisory company, that enables sustainable and lifelong employability for individuals and empowers organisations to optimise their workforce. The company, with 39'000 full time employees in 60 countries around the world, enables 3.5 million careers every year while supporting 100'000 organisations with their human capital needs. It is committed to upskilling 5 million people by 2030 in line with the accelerating transformation of a dynamically changing world of work.

Denis has a proven track record in tackling business challenges, having spent 14 years with Sodexo, most recently as Group CEO after holding several global leadership positions within the Group, and prior to that 16 years with the Altran Group. Denis Machuel has been a member of the Kyndryl Board of Directors since 2021.
